Collection of plays that s great for High School Drama Clubs and class readings Productions royalty free Life Before Stratford Amelia Hall,1990-01-06 By the time Amelia Hall died suddenly in December 1984 she had become one of Canada s most respected and well loved actresses In this book she has left an incomparable record of her early years in the professional theatre in Canada In particular these memoirs chronicle the history of the Canadian Repertory Theatre of Ottawa one of the first professional repertory theatres in Canada Under Amelia Hall s direction in the late forties and early fifties the CRT gave a start to the careers of such notable Canadian actors as Christopher Plummer Eric House William Hutt Ted Follows and William Shatner In these days of long running corporate subsidized extravaganzas it is instructive to read of the struggles and accomplishments of these pioneers of theatre in Canada performing weekly repertory on a shoestring budget with few facilities adn minuscule salaries Yet it was these enthusiasts who provided the basis for the flowering of the Canadian theatrical scene in the 1960s and 1970s It is appropriate that these memoirs should culminate in Amelia Hall s portrayal of the Lady Anne in Richard III opposite Alec Guinness at the first Stratford Festival in 1953 making her the first Canadian and the first woman to speak on the Stratford stage This book is lavishly illustrated with photographs from Amelia Hall s personal collection now housed at the National Archives of Canada Living on Wilderness Time Melissa Walker,2015-03-06 Melissa Walker set out on a journey that many women of her generation have mapped only in their dreams Like many American chroniclers before her who have surrendered to the aimless pleasures of the road Walker had no geographical destination in mind but she did have two definite goals one personal one political for her journey She was looking for the peace and solitude of the backcountry certainly but she also wanted to learn the dynamics of preserving wild places and to devote herself to that cause In the Sky Islands of southern Arizona on the banks of the Popo Agie River and the Wind River Mountains in Wyoming in Yellowstone Grand Teton Rocky Mountain and Olympic National Park in Gila and Glacier Peak Wilderness she encountered the hazards of wild animals and extreme weather and she began to reassess what parts of her life she could control Living on Wilderness Time is a book for those who have visited wild places and want to return and for others whose overcommitted urban lives make them long for land where time is measured differently and human beings are scarce Above all it is a call to join those who like Aldo Leopold see wilderness as vital to the human community Melissa Walker is vice president of National Wilderness Watch chair of the Georgia chapter of Wilderness Watch serves on the Southern Appalachian Council of the Wilderness Society and is the author of Reading the Environment and Down from the Mountaintop She has been Professor of English at the University of New Orleans and Mercer University and a fellow of Women s Studies at Emory University Walker lives with her husband in Atlanta Georgia Catalog of Copyright

Copyright Office,1973 The Crack Between the Worlds Maggie Kast,2009-08-01 A car crashes and Maggie Kast at the peak of a modern dance career loses a three year old daughter Raised without religion and now mired in grief she senses a persistent connection to the little girl a love somehow more powerful than the brute fact of death This awareness leads her over three years to the Catholic Church After the accident her marriage is greatly stressed by the entrance of religion into married life and she and her husband each accuse the other of being too religious or too secular at various times Despite conflict dialogue keeps the marriage intimate and vital Following study of liturgy at Catholic Theological Union she teaches and tours sacred dance nationally and internationally exploring the arts as a spiritual path Moving forward and looking back at once she discovers early hints of religious experience in childhood celebrations encounters with art and marriage Her husband dies Now a single parent of a ten year old and a developmentally disabled teenager as well as college aged sons she continues her search Navy and Army Illustrated ,1904 One Act Play Magazine and Radio-drama Review ,1941 The Academy and Literature ,1887 Playground For Talking Heads Frederic Colier,2013-04-04 The Playground is the Thing Why did you bring me here To a place like this asks the bewildered Kate while trapped in the conceptual hopscotch of Frederic Colier s relentless imagination As moral outrage resurfaces in our overtly self conscious Look Forward In Angst generation it becomes apparent that our intellectual community is in dire need of a playground more specifically Colier s Playground For Talking Heads Recently published by Luminous Press this collection of 5 one act plays comes complete with a merry go round of power games a playing field of characters and concepts and a sea saw teetering between inter personal conflict and social issues As an oasis of bold insight amidst a theatrical landscape that is otherwise replete in PC rhetoric strewn with stylistic devices and littered with oblique references Playground proves an indispensable resource It is a fertile world of human transformation a tersely dramatic cluster of social concerns peopled by fragmented lives In short the sensibility of Playground manages to resurrect the dramatic play till it resounds with its original verb like connotation From the Lanford Wilson like monologue of Firedamp where a character s futile desperation surfaces as he tries to cajole his supposedly apathetic partner into leaving with him only to discover that it is he himself who has been left behind to the darkly David Rabe like torments of Heartbreak Tango replete in lines like You thought you were so clever telling me about your childhood memories hoping I d reveal something about mine I knew right away what you were up to with your little regrets Colier s aper us resonate with contemporary malaise His is a sandbox where domestic violence has global repercussions where minor fetishes each have their grand counterparts As the mother in Sharing Circle succinctly notes I wouldn t let him your father touch me to act out his rage That s why he built this empire And this is why I have to sell it Like Bernard Marie Koltes who employed theatre as a forum for cross cultural exploration Colier follows a minor character from his own Heartbreak Tango and delivers us into the idiosyncratic realm of The Undertaking a play where an otherwise archetypal hooker swings airborne in effortless repartees like What keeps petty criminals petty is their guilt This while The Proposal enlists characters ordinarily found in an Ayckbourn comedy to slide down the slippery length of a horror genre s plot line If the anti thriller twist at the end is indicative of anything it is not so much that our society shies away from visceral forms of evil but that each of our urbane maneuver s to sublimate our tendencies becomes an atrocity in its own right But whether the reluctantly optimistic inhabitants that slide swing and jump rope through Fredric Colier s mind remind one of characters by Eugene O Neill Ariel Dorfman or even novelist Martin Amis is not the issue Instead it is their respective worldview that matters that eclectic playground that each of them forms in his head Though one of the character s says My perfect ending is everyone s perfect ending it is obvious that for Colier this collection is no more than a creative career s perfect continuation As uncluttered spots from which to view the rest of our society are concerned Playground for Talking Heads is bound to have heads both talking and turning for a very long while
