Think Like a Billionaire James Altucher,2019-12-11 What do Tyra Banks Ev Williams and Richard Branson have in common If you answered that they re all extremely wealthy you d be right But you d also be missing a big part of the story James Altucher the noted entrepreneur venture capitalist bestselling author of Choose Yourself and host of the podcast The James Altucher Show which has over 40 million downloads has interviewed 15 of the most successful people in the world to figure out just what makes them tick And the conclusions might surprise you For each of these people money wasn t their ultimate goal it was a natural byproduct of following their passions and developing good habits that enabled them to take advantage of their successes and to learn from their failures From the founder of Spanx to the entrepreneur behind Home Depot from a craft beer aficionado to the investors on Shark Tank these visionaries honed their ideas and creativity and used what they loved as a compass to guide their curiosity That curiosity gave them the insights they needed to skip the line to try new things to diversify and to hit the accelerator on their successes This isn t some lofty self help book This is about real people who achieved their dreams and gained wealth and influence as a result As Altucher notes ultimately it s not the number in the bank account that defines anyone it s asking if you re living life to the best of your ability The Business of

Women Melanie Buddle,2011-01-01 In the past Western women inhabited a conceptual space divorced from the world of business Historians have consequently tended to overlook the experiences of women entrepreneurs Who were these women and how were they able to justify their work outside the home The Business of Women explores the world of women entrepreneurs in early twentieth century British Columbia Contrary to expectation the typical businesswoman was not unmarried or particularly rebellious but a woman who reconciled entrepreneurship with her femininity and her identity as a wife mother or widow The entrepreneurial woman was the product of a frontier ethos in British Columbia that translated into higher rates of marriage for women and more married women working outside the home than in any other province in Canada Like men they worked to support their families The Works of the British Dramatists Sir John Scott
