Teacher in Zimbabwe ,2014 Indigenous Knowledge Systems integration into STEM education: A Zimbabwean perspective Sunzuma G,Zezekwa N,Mudzamiri E,Chikuvadze P,2025-05-25 The inclusion of Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS in STEM education is a crucial step towards decolonizing knowledge and creating inclusive relevant learning spaces that reflect culture This book examines the theoretical practical and contextual aspects of incorporating IKS into Zimbabwe s STEM curriculum with a focus on high school education The book is a reflection of the realization that education systems in postcolonial societies like Zimbabwe must do more than simply propagate traditional Western paradigms The lived experiences past events and educational institutions of their society must be reflected on and informed by them The rich Indigenous knowledge in Zimbabwe has played a significant role in shaping communities understanding of agriculture health engineering mathematics and the environment over time Still much of this knowledge has been marginalized in formal education By providing a framework for the meaningful integration of IKS into STEM disciplines this work seeks to close that gap Indigenous Knowledge Systems are introduced in Chapter 1 detailing their origin development and philosophical basis Chapter 2 An Examination of the current integration of IKS into STEM education in Zimbabwe taking into account curricular approaches and classroom practice Chapter 3 highlights the importance of evaluating and assessing integration efforts by proposing culturally sensitive and multidimensional approaches that are appropriate for Zimbabwean classrooms In Chapter 4 we explore the challenges and obstacles to achieving successful IKS STEM integration such as teacher readiness epistemological tensions and systemic resistance Chapter 5 offers an exceptional examination of how Indigenous knowledge artefacts and practices can be utilized for conceptual development in high school STEM instruction with practical examples from Zimbabwean communities being included in the analysis It is aimed at teachers researchers and practitioners of decolonial education practices as well as policymakers and teacher trainers to develop locally relevant and globally relevant pedagogies We aspire that this work will contribute to advancing scholarship that recognizes Indigenous knowledge as essential living science and promotes African learners as both recipients and producers of valuable knowledge

The Zimbabwe Science News, 1981 The African Book Publishing Record, 2000 Integrated Water Resources Management, Institutions and Livelihoods under Stress Collin C. Mabiza, 2018-03-09 The majority of people in Limpopo river basin depend on rainfed agriculture Unfortunately the Limpopo is water scarce and parts of the basin such as Zimbabwe's Mzingwane catchment are under stress in terms of agro ecological and socio politicoeconomic conditions Integrated Water Resources Management IWRM has been adopted in the river basin in Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Korwa Gombe Adar, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, Dorothy Mpabanga, Norbert Musekiwa, 2023-01-17 Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Peoples Agency Popular Participation and Democratization edited by Korwa Gombe Adar Dorothy Mpabanga Kebapetse Lotshwao Thekiso Molokwane and Norbert Musekiwa engages in the debate associated with the people of Southern Africa people of the Region democratization and integration nexus envisaged in the 1980 treaty which established the Southern African Development Community SADC Using political and public administration perspectives the editors argue that for democratization and integration to be tangibly consolidated and institutionalized direct involvement of the people of Southern Africa the peoples agency is paramount and would lead to what is dubbed in this book as sadcness and sadcnization More specifically democratization and integration are about people citizens the sovereigns and not merely the abstract actors called nation states Using the case studies of Angola Botswana Madagascar Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe the contributors have from political and public administration dimensions engaged in this epistemology assessing among other things the peoples of Southern Africa the Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus The Europa World Year: Kazakhstan - Zimbabwe, 2004 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector's potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research

Zimbabwean Communities in Britain Christopher Roy Zembe, 2018-05-15 This book examines why Zimbabwean immigrants in Britain should be viewed as a product of ethno racial identities and prejudices developed and nurtured during the colonial and post colonial phases of Zimbabwe's history In the absence of shared historic socio economic or cultural commonalities the book will tackle the key question Are Zimbabweans in Britain demarcated by race and ethnicity an imagined community Through an analysis of personal interviews and secondary and primary sources it identifies and engages historical experiences that had been instrumental in constructing diasporic identities and integration processes of Zimbabwean immigrants With most literature tending to create perceptions that Zimbabwean immigrants are a monolithic community of Blacks the book's comparative analysis of Blacks Whites Coloureds and Asians unveils a multi racial community fragmented by historic racial and ethnic allegiances and prejudices It is essential reading for scholars and researchers interested in migration African Diaspora and colonial and post colonial studies
