Mandates and Missteps Anna Kent, 2024-02-02 Mandates and Missteps is the first comprehensive history of Australian government scholarships to the Pacific from the first scheme in 1948 to the Australia Awards of 2018 The study of scholarships provides a window into foreign and education policy making across decades and the impact such policies have had on individuals and communities

This work demonstrates the broad role these scholarships have played in bilateral relationships between Australia and Pacific Island territories and countries The famed Colombo Plan is here put in its proper context within international aid and international education history Australian scholarship programs it is argued ultimately reflect Australia and its perception of itself as a nation in the Pacific more than the needs of Pacific Island nations Mandates and Missteps traces Australia's role as both a coloniser in the Territory of Papua and New Guinea and a participant in the process of decolonisation across the Pacific This study will be of interest to students and scholars of international development international education and foreign policy     Accounting Education for the 21st Century Jane O. Burns, Belverd E. Needles, 2014-06-28 Accounting practice whether in business or government is more dynamic more complex and addresses a wider array of issues than it did as little as five years ago Significant and rapid social political technological and economic changes are taking place in the world economy and it is increasingly recognised that accountants in all countries play a key role in the process of economic development Accounting education is undergoing a thorough review on a worldwide basis and major developments are taking place to produce quality accounting education that can keep pace with dramatic world change This book provides an up to date view of the state of accounting education throughout the world and focusses on the global challenges facing accounting education as we approach the millennium     Women and the Judiciary in the Asia-Pacific Melissa

Crouch, 2021-10-07 First comparative study of women judges in the Asia Pacific based on empirical socio legal research

Policy Innovations Mark Fabian, Robert Breunig, 2018-03-12 Political discourse in much of the world remains mired in simplistic ideological dichotomies of market fundamentalism for efficiency versus substantial socialism for equity Contemporary public policy design is far more sophisticated It blends market government and community tools to simultaneously achieve both equity and efficiency Unlike in the twentieth century this design is increasingly grounded in a deep evidence base derived by way of rigorous empirical techniques A new paradigm is emerging hybrid policies This volume provides a thorough introduction to this technical side of public policy analysis and development It demonstrates that it is possible to go beyond ideology and find there some powerful answers to our most pressing problems An international team of experts many of whom have experience with the design or implementation of hybrid policies helps cover the behavioural institutional and regulatory theories that inform the choice of policy objectives and lead the initial conception of solutions They explain the reasons why we need evidence based public policy and the state of the art empirical techniques involved in its development And they analyse a range of in depth case studies from industrial relations to health care to illustrate how hybrids can intermingle the strengths of governments markets and the community to combat the weaknesses of each and arrive at bipartisan outcomes Hybrid Public Policy Innovations is geared to scholars and practitioners of public policy administration and management who desire to understand the analytical reasons why policies are designed the way they are and the purpose of evidence gathering frameworks attached to policies at implementation

Life Story with Unforgettable Experiences for God's Glory Lina Liria, 2014-05-29 Life is so full of misery and struggling along to reach the destination Many thoughts of regrets and questions why been born into this world and wish i could have been destroyed while i was growing silently in my mothers womb Every move i make steps i take hurts me I look to all directions to find who my helper would be but seem to be none Life is useless My thought of homelessness was a bitter poison I thought about it day and night and my spirit was depressed But there is one thing i know is the Love of God that nothing of this world will separate Gods unconditional love for every man kind He protects and provides for his people Now I have peace the wonderful peace in my soul since that day when my burdens crashed me down I took it to the Lord in prayer with faith He answered me cast all your burdens unto me for He cares In return he gave me the Love peace joy longsuffering patience and endurance He made the way for me when there seems to be no way out

The Boy from Boort Bill Gammage, Gavan Daws, Brij V. Lal, 2014-07-27 Hank Nelson was an academic film maker teacher graduate supervisor and university administrator His career at The Australian National University ANU spanned almost 40 years of notable accomplishment in expanding and deepening our understanding of the history and politics of Papua New Guinea the experience of Australian soldiers at war bush schools and much else This book is a highly readable tribute to him written by those who knew him well including his students and also contains wide ranging works by Hank himself Professor Stewart Firth ANU

Struggle, Reform, Boom and Bust Stephen Howes, Martin Davies, Rohan Fox, Maholopa Laveil, Manoj K. Pandey, Kelly Samof, Dek Joe Sum, 2025-07-31 Since Papua New

Guinea's independence in 1975 economic growth has been slow but volatile with major changes in economic structure and policies as well as in politics and governance This economic history written to commemorate the fiftieth year of independence and the first to be produced in some 15 years divides the half century since independence into four periods the relative stability but also early struggles of the seventies and eighties the crises and reforms of the nineties the boom of the 2000s and the quiet bust of the 2010s Two chapters cover each period's major economic policy institutional and political developments The final three chapters provide an overall assessment of economic performance and policies since independence and link them with its politics and institutions The book combines painstaking documentation with original analysis to reveal both the strengths and weaknesses of the PNG economy and theorises that the country's hyper politics and insecurity have combined to produce and are reinforced by a weak but stable state and low and increasingly resource dependent growth Data driven frank insightful and engaging Struggle Reform Boom and Bust is written by an expert team of economists from the University of Papua New Guinea and The Australian National University under the leadership of Professor Stephen Howes Director of the ANU Development Policy Centre It is an essential resource for anyone interested in the economy of Papua New Guinea as well as an important contribution to the literature on the challenges and institutional determinants of post colonial development

Ring of Fire Bethany D. Rinard Hinga, 2015-03-17 The author examines natural disasters around the Pacific Rim throughout history together with scientific data context to produce enlightening and highly readable entries On March 11 2011 a magnitude 9.0 earthquake struck off Japan's coast triggering a powerful tsunami The massive destruction that resulted proved that not even sophisticated industrialized nations are immune from nature's fury Written to take some of the mystery out of the earth's behavior this encyclopedia chronicles major natural disasters that have occurred around the Pacific Rim an area nicknamed the Ring of Fire because of the volatile earth that lies above and below The encyclopedia offers descriptions of deadly earthquakes volcanic eruptions and tsunamis through time The entries provide in depth information that promotes an understanding of the structure of the earth and earth processes and shares the insights of scientists whose work helps clarify the causes and effects of these cataclysmic events At the same time the work examines how the people and cultures of the Pacific Rim view this active part of the earth how they live with the threat of disaster and how they have been affected by major events that have occurred Readers will come away with a holistic view of what is known how this knowledge was gained and what its implications may be

Yabar David Lipset, 2017-03-27 This book analyses the dual alienations of a coastal group rural men the Murik of Papua New Guinea David Lipset argues that Murik men engage in a Bakhtinian dialogue voicing their alienation from both their own indigenous masculinity as well as from the postcolonial modernity in which they find themselves adrift Lipset analyses young men's elusive expressions of desire in courtship narratives marijuana discourse and mobile phone use in which generational tensions play out together with their disaffection from the state He also borrows from Lacanian psychoanalysis in discussing how men's dialogue of dual alienation appears in folk theater in material substitutions most notably in the replacement of outrigger canoes by fiberglass boats as well as in rising sea levels and the looming possibility of resettlement "I Have Been So Many People" Tanya Long Bennett, 2014 Smith's body of work examines the influence of significant factors such as place memory art tradition social expectation media religion history and story on personal identity First Fieldwork Laura Zimmer-Tamakoshi, 2018-08-31 First Fieldwork Pacific Anthropology 1960 1985 explores what a generation of anthropologists experienced during their first visits to the field at a time of momentous political changes in Pacific island countries and societies and in anthropology itself Answering some of the same how and why questions found in Terence E Hays Ethnographic Presents Pioneering Anthropologists in the Papua New Guinea Highlands 1993 First Fieldwork begins where that collection left off in the 1950s and covers a broader selection of Pacific Islands societies and topics Chapters range from candid reflections on working with little known peoples to reflexive analyses of adapting research projects and field sites in order to better fit local politics and concerns Included in these accounts are the often harsh emotional and logistical demands placed on fieldworkers and interlocutors as they attempt the work of connecting and achieving mutual understandings Evident throughout is the conviction that fieldwork and what we learn from and write about it are necessary to a robust anthropology By demystifying a phase begun in the mid 1980s when critics considered attempts to describe fieldwork and its relation to ethnography as inevitably biased representations of the unknowable truth First Fieldwork contributes to a renewed interest in experiential and theoretical nuances of fieldwork Looking back on the richest of fieldwork experiences the contributors uncover essential structures and challenges of fieldwork connection context and change What they find is that building relationships and having others include you in their lives once referred to as achieving rapport is determined as much by our subjects as by ourselves As they examine connections made or attempted during first fieldwork and bring to bear subsequent understandings and questions new contexts from which to view and think about their experiences the contributors provide readers with multidimensional perspectives on fieldwork and how it continues to inspire anthropological interpretations and commitment A crucial dimension is change Each chapter is richly detailed in history theirs ours colonial postcolonial and the then and now of theory and practice While change is ever present specifics are not Reflecting back the authors demonstrate how that specificity defined their experiences and ultimately their ethnographic re productions The Report: Papua New Guinea 2015 Oxford Business Group, 2016-09-17 In Papua New Guinea hopes are high that real change is on its way the country's political administrative financial and technical leaders now have to find a way to ensure the most productive distribution and use of financial resources Many international actors are watching closely to see how this young country negotiates its path Papua New Guinea became a major exporter of gas in 2014 when the 19bn PNG liquefied natural gas LNG project was completed ahead of schedule and within budget significantly increasing the size and strength of the economy The year ahead is likely to see PNG benefit from the further development of its hydrocarbons sector fuelling the growth of its economy as a whole The LNG influx also poses challenges however in terms of ensuring inclusive growth and productive use of the new revenues PNG takes pride in being a final frontier of natural and cultural development but the task ahead is to protect the country's heritage while becoming part of the global economy

Administrative Law and Judicial Review in Papua New Guinea Christopher Karaiye, 2019-06-18 This is a compendium of administrative law and judicial review in Papua New Guinea In this book the author precisely recounts the history of the development of administrative law and judicial review in England and some other common law jurisdictions The main theme of the book is however devoted to judicial review in Papua New Guinea The practice and procedure for appealing from the decision of the National Court in judicial review are unique and onerous This book evaluates them in detail to give the readers a complete sense of reference The interlocutory procedures encapsulated in this book are also relevant for any proceeding before the courts At the end of various chapters the author makes some insightful and thought provoking commentaries on gaps found in judicial review The book is an authoritative text for lawyers law students academia judicial officers and other interested persons alike It is a must read for lawyers and law students who seek to be familiar with the often cumbersome judicial review procedures and practices For students and scholars in other disciplines who aim to learn and abreast themselves of how administrative law affects administrative action and public policy this book is a perfect choice The book dissects complex administrative law concepts and enables lay persons including those in the public service to fully understand and apply them The book is a valuable resource material for the Pacific Island countries like Fiji Vanuatu and Solomon Islands who have adopted the common law legal systems similar to Papua New Guinea

BOOK REVIEWS The author collates culls and compiles one important material for use by judicial officers and practitioners in the area of judicial review
