Describing Species Judith E. Winston, 1999-11-04 New species are discovered every day and cataloguing all of them has grown into a nearly insurmountable task worldwide Now this definitive reference manual acts as a style guide for writing and filing species descriptions New collecting techniques and new technology have led to a dramatic increase in the number of species that are discovered Explorations of unstudied regions and new habitats for almost any group of organisms can result in a large number of new species discoveries and hence the need to be described Yet there is no one source a student or researcher can readily consult to learn the basic practical aspects of taxonomic procedures Species description can present a variety of difficulties Problems arise when new species are not given names because their discoverers do not know how to write a formal species description or when these species are poorly described Biologists may also have to deal with nomenclatural problems created by previous workers or resulting from new information generated by their own research This practical resource for scientists and students contains instructions and examples showing how to describe newly discovered species in both the animal and plant kingdoms With special chapters on publishing taxonomic papers and on ecology in species description as well as sections covering subspecies genus level and higher taxa descriptions Describing Species enhances any writer's taxonomic projects reports checklists floras faunal surveys revisions monographs or guides The volume is based on current versions of the International Codes of Zoological and Botanical Nomenclature and recognizes that systematics is a global and multicultural exercise Though Describing Species has been written for an English speaking audience it is useful anywhere Taxonomy is spoken and will be a valuable tool for professionals and students in zoology botany ecology paleontology and other fields of biology

WEAR ME BEAUTIFUL Dr. Meena Jhala, 2021-12-09 The aim of the study was to enlighten the knowledge of color and its application in selection of clothes Any color in a dress looks nice if it is appropriate to the wearer's skin tone and it looks becoming The colors should be right for day wear and evening wear This particular book will be presenting findings of both Day and Evening Wear Color is one of the most important elements in Fashion Fashion is color color is fashion giving feeling and emotion to every changing trend and is an essential part of our everyday life Color is perhaps the first element that we register when we view something for the first time Color is usually first to attract us to clothing Color selection in clothes is very personal and each of us has a color or colors in which we think we look best It was observed by the researcher through the pilot study that the age group between 20 to 30 years in women is very crucial they have their own wardrobe demands their choices in color selection are random and based on trends and mostly on others opinion They need color guidance for day wear and evening wear However this reference is applicable to women above 30 years of age as well Hence under the study A STUDY OF COLOR SELECTION FOR CLOTHING AS PER SKIN TONE Reference of Skin Tones taken from Donna Fujji s Skin Tone palette of 10 Warm and 10 Cool skin colors I have tried to give proper color palette for each of the seven identified skin tone from the sample size of 500 women with a vocabulary of 101 colors Reference taken from Jean Allen s 29 basic and 101 Color Vocabulary which were matched with Pantone Shade Cards and same were dyed in cotton and silk fabrics for this study by the Researcher 22 One of the main objectives of this research is to address misconceptions that women have regarding skin tones and suitable colors for clothing for day wear and evening wear and provide an opportunity of enhancement of self image Since the study is based on skin tones of the women firstly each of the 500 women s skin tone was identified with skin tone scale and with the data analysis seven skin tones were identified on the majority ratio Here the Hair color and color of eyes being constant as black brown The second aspect was the vocabulary of color it was matched with Pantone Shade Cards then dyeing them in exact shade in cotton and silk fabrics This book hopes to provide suggestions information and an opportunity to every woman in India to enhance self image look beautiful and attractive in the colors she wears
