The Defeat of the Damned Douglas E Nash, 2023-10-15 Doug Nash addresses a crucial period of December 1944 This latest of his works which all stand on their own merits is the best read to date Marine Corps Gazette One of the most notorious yet least understood body of troops that fought for the Third Reich during World War II was the infamous Sondereinheit Dirlewanger or the Dirlewanger Special Unit Formed initially as a company sized formation in June 1940 from convicted poachers it served under the command of SS Obersturmf hrer Oskar Dirlewanger one of the most infamous criminals in military history First used to guard the Jewish ghetto in Lublin and support security operations carried out in occupied Poland by SS and Police forces the unit was soon transferred to Belarus to combat the increasingly active Soviet partisan movement After assisting in putting down the Warsaw Uprising

during August September 1944 by November of that year it had been enlarged and retitled as the 2 SS Sturmbrigade Dirlewanger One month later it fought one of its most controversial actions near the town of Ipolysag Hungary now known by its Slovak name of Ipoly between 13 and 18 December 1944 As a result of its overly hasty and haphazard deployment lack of heavy armament and a confusing chain of command it was virtually destroyed by two Soviet mechanized corps Consequently the Wehrmacht leadership blamed Dirlewanger and the performance of his troops for the encirclement of the Hungarian capital of Budapest during late December 1944 that led to the annihilation of its garrison two months later The brigade's defeat at Ipolysag also led to its compulsory removal from the front lines by General der Panzertruppe Hermann Balck and its eventual shipment to a rest area where it would be completely rebuilt so thorough was its destruction Despite its lackluster performance the brigade was rebuilt once again and sent to East Prussia in February 1945 but never recovered from the thrashing it received at the hands of the 6th Guards Army in December

From the Realm of a Dying Sun Douglas E. Nash, 2019-12-19 The first volume of the tactical and operational history of World War II Germany's fourth SS Panzerkorps division and its leader During World War II the armed or Waffen SS branch of the Third Reich's dreaded security service expanded from two divisions in 1940 to 38 divisions by the end of the war eventually growing to a force of over 900 000 men until Germany's defeat in May 1945 The histories of the first three SS corps are well known the actions of I II and III Germanic SS Panzerkorps have been thoroughly documented and publicized Overlooked in this pantheon is another SS corps that never fought in the west or in Berlin but one that participated in many of the key battles fought on the Eastern Front during the last year of the war the IV SS Panzerkorps Activated during the initial stages of the defense of Warsaw in late July 1944 the corps consisting of the 3 and 5 SS Panzer Divisions Totenkopf and Wiking respectively was born in battle and spent the last ten months of the war in combat figuring prominently in the battles of Warsaw the attempted Relief of Budapest Operation Spring Awakening the defense of Vienna and the withdrawal into Austria where it finally surrendered to U S forces in May 1945 Herbert Otto Gille's IV SS Panzerkorps was renowned for its tenacity high morale and above all its lethality Often embroiled in heated disputes with its immediate Wehrmacht higher headquarters over his seemingly cavalier conduct of operations Gille's corps remained to the bitter end one of the Third Reich's most reliable and formidable field formations
