Supplementary Economics Memo Feb March 2015:

Unfinished Business Tamim Bayoumi, 2017-09-19 A penetrating critique tracing how under regulated trading between European and U S banks led to the 2008 financial crisis with a prescription for preventing another meltdown There have been numerous books examining the 2008 financial crisis from either a U S or European perspective Tamim Bayoumi is the first to explain how the Euro crisis and U S housing crash were in fact parasitically intertwined Starting in the 1980s Bayoumi outlines the cumulative policy errors that undermined the stability of both the European and U S financial sectors highlighting the catalytic role played by European mega banks that exploited lax regulation to expand into the U S market and financed unsustainable bubbles on both continents U S banks increasingly sold sub par loans to under regulated European and U S shadow banks and when the bubbles burst the losses whipsawed back to the core of the European banking system A much needed fresh look at the origins of the crisis Bayoumi s analysis concludes that policy makers are ignorant of what still needs to be done both to complete the cleanup and to prevent future crises International Economic Law

Giovanna Adinolfi, Freya Baetens, José Caiado, Angela Lupone, Anna G. Micara, 2016-12-29 This volume scrutinises the main challenges faced by States in their current international economic relations from an interdisciplinary perspective It combines legal research with political and economic analysis and favours dialogue among scientific disciplines Readers are offered a series of in depth studies on a rich variety of topics how to reconcile States interest to benefit from economic liberalization with their need to pursue social goals such as the protection of human rights or of the environment recent developments under WTO law and regional integration processes international cooperation in the energy sector national regulatory developments in the banking sector sovereign wealth funds and investor State arbitration Survival: Global Politics and Strategy (February-March 2020): Deterring North Korea
