The semester exam will consist of 40 multiple choice and matching questions worth 2 points each and 2 short answer questions worth 10 points each for a total of 100 points.

- You will read a short narrative essay ("A Hanging" by George Orwell) and answer questions concerning it.
 - This essay will be made available to you in class to read before the exam. It is also available on my website.

 - Title: Consider the title. What are your first impressions of the title?
 - Paraphrase: Translate the poem into your own words.
 - Connotation: Comment on particular diction, imagery, and/or allusions that you think might be significant. Contemplate the poem for meaning beyond the literal level.
 - Attitude: Observe both the speaker's and the poet's attitudes. What are their attitudes toward the situation?
 - Shift: Note shifts both in speakers and in attitudes. Where does the poem shift? What is the poet showing you there?
 - Title: Examine the title again, this time on an interpretive level. In retrospect, what is the deeper meaning of the title in connection to the poem?
 - Theme: Determine what the poet is saying. State the theme in one sentence.
