World War II Veterans in Motorsports Art Evans, 2019-07-23 This generation of Americans has a rendezvous with destiny said President Franklin D Roosevelt of the young Americans who grew up during the deprivation of the Great Depression and later served during World War II The 23 described in this book went on from military service to make their mark in auto racing particularly in the sports car scene of the 1950s and 1960s Ken Miles and Vasek Polak were not Americans during the war but later went on to become citizens Carroll Shelby was not only a great driver but also created cars that are still manufactured John Von Neumann and Vasek Polak were instrumental in helping to establish Porsche as a marque in the U S John Fitch Ed Hugus Chuck Daigh Bill Stroppe Max Balchowsky Jay Chamberlain Jim Peterson and Paul Newman were heroes in the war before succeeding in businesses and motorsports

On a Global Mission: The Automobiles of General Motors International Volume 3 Louis F. Fourie, 2016-12-27 Volume One traces the history of Opel and Vauxhall separately from inception through to the 1970s and thereafter collectively to 2015 Special attention is devoted to examining innovative engineering features and the role Opel has taken of providing global platforms for GM Each model is examined individually and supplemented by exhaustive supporting specification tables The fascinating history of Saab and Lotus begins with their humble beginnings and examines each model in detail and looks at why these unusual marques came under the GM Banner Included is a penetrating review of Saab through to its unfortunate demise Volume Two examines unique models and variations of Chevrolet and Buick manufactured in the Southern Hemisphere and Asia but never offered in North America Daewoo Wuling and Baojun are other Asian brands covered in detail This volume concludes with recording the remarkable early success of Holden and its continued independence through to today Volume Three covers the smaller assembly operations around the world and the evolution of GM's export operations A brief history of Isuzu Subaru and Suzuki looks at the three minority interests GM held in Asia The GM North American model specifications are the most comprehensive to be found in a single book Global and regional sales statistics are included GM executives and management from around the globe are listed with the roles they held An index ensures that these volumes serve as the ideal reference source on GM Monthéry William Boddy, 2006 Updated from the original Montagu Motor Books edition this is the only English language record of an extremely historic motor track used for innumerable record bids and important track and road races Foreword by racing driver and record breaker the late George Eyston OBE The Problem of Beauty Mark Halperin, 2020-03-23 The intense piety of late T'ang essays on Buddhism by literati has helped earn the T'ang its title of the golden age of Chinese Buddhism In contrast the Sung is often seen as an age in which the literati distanced themselves from Buddhism This study of Sung devotional texts shows however that many literati participated in intra Buddhist debates Others were drawn to Buddhism because of its power which found expression and reinforcement in its ties with the state For some monasteries were extravagant houses of worship that reflected the corruption of the age for others the sacrifice and industry demanded by such projects were exemplars worthy of emulation Finally Buddhist temples could evoke highly personal feelings of filial piety and nostalgia This book demonstrates that representations of Buddhism by lay people underwent a major change during the T'ang Sung transition These changes built on basic transformations within the Buddhist and classicist traditions and sometimes resulted in the use of Buddhism and Buddhist temples as frames of reference to evaluate aspects of lay society Buddhism far from being pushed to the margins of Chinese culture became even more a part of everyday elite Chinese life Design Issues, 1997 Motor Racing At Goodwood in the Sixties Tony Gardiner, 2003 Goodwood in the sixties epitomised all that was good about the British motor racing scene It was a circuit where anybody could have a go and yet the established greats like Stirling Moss would be there too It was a circuit where Minis rubbed shoulders with Ferraris and Ford Galaxies MGBs dived with Triumph TRs and Morgans and clubman's races were as keenly fought as RAC Tourist Trophy events Most of all Goodwood was accessible and informal spectators with no special privileges could get really close to the action examine the cars in the paddock and meet the great drivers of the day Tony Gardiner was a regular spectator at Goodwood before the popular Sussex track was forced to close in 1966 His fascinating photos remind us of an era of motor racing very different from today's and illustrate an amazing variety of machinery from Lotus Cortinas to Aston Martin Zagatos Unceasing

Militant, Second Edition Alison M. Parker, 2025-03-18 Born into slavery during the Civil War Mary Church Terrell 1863 1954 would become one of the most prominent activists of her time with a career bridging the late nineteenth century to the civil rights movement of the 1950s The first president of the National Association of Colored Women and a founding member of the NAACP Terrell collaborated closely with the likes of Frederick Douglass Ida B Wells and W E B Du Bois Unceasing Militant is the first full length biography of Terrell bringing her vibrant voice and personality to life Though most accounts of Terrell focus almost exclusively on her public activism Alison M Parker also looks at the often turbulent unexplored moments in her life to provide a more complete account of a woman dedicated to changing the culture and institutions that perpetuated inequality throughout the United States This new edition includes a new preface in which Parker reflects on the resurgence of public interest in Terrell and discusses the newly available digitized files of Terrell s papers at the Library of Congress

Introducing New Materials in the Automotive Industry Fredrik Henriksson, 2017-11-08 Passenger vehicles are central to Western society and contribute to a signi cant part of our greenhouse gas emissions In order to reduce emissions the automotive industry as a whole is working to reduce mass in passenger vehicles in order to reduce energy consumption One way to reduce mass is to introduce lightweight materials in the body of the vehicle This research aims to explore the relationship between product and production system when introducing new materials Besides a theoretical review and an industry centered technological mapping four case studies have been conducted during the course of this licentiate thesis Two case studies were conducted with engineering design students working as development teams one case study with the author as the developer and nally one case study in an industrial environment at a product owning company with in house production The goal of the case studies has been to increase the collective knowledge of how product development decisions affect production development decisions and vice versa when developing passenger vehicles in new materials In the following analysis of case study outcomes a number of factors important for introducing new materials are discussed The relationship between product and production is investigated both in terms of how the production system affects the product and how the product affects the production system The outcome from this analysis is a mapping of important factors for automotive industry companies to understand and identify when looking at introducing new materials in existing production systems Finally a suggestion for future research efforts is presented

The Problem of Women in Early Modern Japan Marcia Yonemoto,2016-09-27

Early modern Japan was a military bureaucratic state governed by patriarchal and patrilineal principles and laws During this time however women had considerable power to directly affect social structure political practice and economic production This apparent contradiction between official norms and experienced realities lies at the heart of The Problem of Women in Early Modern Japan Examining prescriptive literature and instructional manuals for women as well as diaries memoirs and letters written by and about individual women from the late seventeenth century to the early nineteenth century Marcia Yonemoto explores the dynamic nature of Japanese women s lives during the early modern era
