initiatives that promote social and linguistic justice without neglecting migrant and international languages in the territory. The agency of speakers is highlighted as well as the processes of linguistic hybridization and identity claims that are created in Spain. This volume analyzes the semiotic meaning of different languages varieties and discursive practices in different Spanish contexts from an ethnographic multimodal and critical perspective. It observes how some languages varieties and repertoires are privileged in top down institutional environments whilst others respond to bottom up initiatives that contemplate complex processes of identity construction in Spain in order to decide whether or not a greater balance between majority and minority languages is achieved in different contexts and spaces nowadays.

Sociolinguistic Variation in Urban Linguistic Landscapes Sofie Henricson, Väinö Syrjälä, Carla Bagna, Martina Bellinzona, 2024-04-23. Urban linguistic landscapes reflect and create sociolinguistic societal and urban dynamics. This book explores these relations scientifically and focusing on the linguistic landscapes of selected cities in northern and southern Europe sheds light on how urban areas with diverse profiles differ and how linguistic landscapes change through tourism and migration or in times of crisis. The book puts forward sophisticated and novel ways of approaching urban sociolinguistics and enhances understanding of the challenges and opportunities faced when studying sociolinguistic variation in these linguistic landscapes. This book is targeted especially at scholars in the field of urban sociolinguistics wishing to approach the subject through the lens of linguistic landscapes. It also raises interesting points to anyone involved in language planning and policy reflection as well as those engaged in urban redevelopment planning. Last but not least it offers theoretical and methodological guidance to students and researchers in a wider variety of disciplines.
