The Long Journey Home Jean Farish, 2014-02-20 This book is a story about an adventurous and mystical journey inspired by my immersion in a foreign culture on a six month assignment in the Orient with an unexpected secret destination awakening to the true essence of life and divine love Disillusioned with society s standards for success and happiness personal life challenges and a desire to express my gifts and talents to the world I welcomed this life changing journey Obsession with the past and excessive concern about the future often disengaged me from the present moment with a desire to search for some transcendent meaning in life The geographic change integration within a multi ethnic and multi religious culture and a new lifestyle enabled me to engage in more passionate and intimate expressions of life Experiencing the charitable spirit of the culture marveling at the mysteries and wonders of the land communing with nature and engaging in cultural rituals stirred my heart and awakened me to the beauty of life and a peace beyond understanding It enabled me to build self confidence trust and experience unconditional love Being faraway from home the realization of the true meaning of home became more profound with the revelation of a meaningful gift revealed at the end of the journey The book highlights the spectrum of love in the 1880 classic The Greatest Thing in the World by Henry Drummond including patience kindness generosity humility courtesy unselfishness good temper guilelessness and sincerity These ingredients laid the foundation for transcending culture and language a renewed sense of self conscious living and a heightened awareness of divine love The Long Journey Home Andrew J. The Long Journey Home from Dak To Warren M. Denny,2003-08-03 The author fanaticized about combat and played war games in his youth War is not a game Combat wasn t this fantasy for him in real life This book tells the story of a Kansas boy who grew up quickly serving as a combat platoon leader in the Vietnam War It shares his exploits with A Company 4 503 173 Airborne Brigade His platoon was very unlucky in the June November 1967 campaign as the Fire

Brigade took on the NVA in Dak To His actions are reported in at least two documentary books dealing with individual firefights in the Central Highlands during that period This is the unpolished truth about the brutal war and how really futile it was to go toe to toe against a better prepared army and survive The author gives unembellished reports of what his unit experienced and backs it up with the Battalion After Action Reports He acknowledges he is alive today only because of superior tactical air support and artillery firepower This book gives an entirely different viewpoint than most books authored by Vietnam veterans While his observations may be controversial to some vets it reflects the author's objective opinion of what he experienced there
