The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2022-09-30. This fully updated new edition of The Routledge Companion to World Literature contains ten brand new chapters on topics such as premodern world literature, migration studies, world history, artificial intelligence, global Englishes, remediation, crime fiction, Lusophone literature, Middle Eastern literature, and oceanic studies. Separated into four key sections, the volume covers the history of world literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said, Casanova, and Moretti; the disciplinary relationship of world literature to areas such as philology, translation, globalization, and diaspora studies; theoretical issues in world literature including gender, politics, and ethics; and a global perspective on the politics of world literature. Comprehensive yet accessible, this book is ideal as an introduction to world literature or for those looking to extend their knowledge of this essential field.

Social Semiotics of Arabic Satellite Television Ali Darwish, 2009. Arabic satellite television is a phenomenon that has swept the Arab world in less than two decades and is said to have dramatically changed the Arab region. It has created a world of contrasts and contradictions between tradition and liberalism and a polarization of views and opinions all vying for dominance and control. This book examines the social semiotics of Arabic satellite television and studies the multimodal representations of Arab social and cultural values and their implied meanings in a communication medium that heavily relies on imported western models
