some of the most downright bizarre baked foods ever created Everything has a history but food history is special because it tells so much about our culture and society our desires and our weaknesses from the broad sweep of bread creating human civilisation to the invention of the wedding cake the creation of the whisky the purpose of the fish heads in a star gazy pie or the fact that mince pies used to be meaty When we think of the evolution of something we think every step is an improvement an incremental elevation toward some peak of perfection as technology improves This is not always the case Sometimes things have to become simpler sometimes knowledge is lost and skills forgotten As a baker of historical foods Neil Buttery demonstrates that forgotten recipes and traditional techniques are worth trying out and mention a few that should perhaps be left in the past The reader will be inspired by the characters creations and inventions of the past to be better and more adventurous bakers
