Tabur, 2018-09-30 This volume investigates the ways in which Toni Morrison's A Mercy Dionne Brand's In Another Place Not Here Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake and Carolyn See's There Will Never Be Another You engage with the physical ideological and socially constructed real and imagined spaces of colonialism justice diaspora and risk Building on a range of theoretical approaches to the production of space this study argues for the significance of literature as a cartographic practice charting the intricacies of the socio spatiality of human life Through rigorous readings this book examines each novel as a critical map that both represents and explores contested spaces and alternative spatial negotiations These spatially oriented literary analyses contribute to recent conceptualizations of space as socially and relationally produced open dynamic and contested and enrich the existing scholarship on the novels discussed here Contemporary Reconfigurations of American Literary Classics Betina Entzminger, 2013 The number and popularity of novels that have overtly reconfigured

aspects of classic American texts suggests a curious trend for both readers and writers an impulse to retell and reread books that have come to define American culture This book argues that by revising canonical American literature contemporary American writers are re writing an American myth of origins creating one that corresponds to the contemporary writer s understanding of self and society Informed by cognitive psychology evolutionary literary criticism and poststructuralism Entzminger reads texts by canonical authors Poe Hawthorne Melville Alcott Twain Chopin and Faulkner and by the contemporary writers that respond to them In highlighting the construction and cognitive function of narrative in their own and in their antecedent texts contemporary writers highlight the fact that such use of narrative is universal and essential to human beings This book suggests that by revising the classic texts that compose our cultural narrative contemporary writers mirror the way human individuals consistently revisit and refigure the past through language via self narration in order to manage and understand experience American Book Publishing Record ,2004 White Male Nostalgia in Contemporary North American Literature Tim Engles,2018-07-13 White Male Nostalgia in Contemporary North American Literature charts the late twentieth century development of reactionary emotions commonly felt by resentful yet often goodhearted white men Examining an eclectic array of literary case studies in light of recent work in critical whiteness and masculinity studies history geography philosophy and theology Tim Engles delineates five preliminary forms of white male nostalgia as dramatized in novels by Sloan Wilson Richard Wright Carol Shields Don DeLillo Louis Begley and Margaret Atwood demonstrating how literary fiction can help us understand the inner workings of deluded dominance These authors write from identities outside the defensive domain of normalized white masculinity demonstrating via extended interior dramas that although nostalgia is primarily thought of as an emotion felt by individuals it also works to shore up entrenched collective power
