The New Feminist Literary Studies Jennifer Cooke, 2020-12-03 Presents essays by feminists of theory and literature that examine contemporary feminism and the most pressing issues of today Rewriting the North Chloe

Ashbridge, 2023-05-15 This book shows how twenty first century writing about Northern England imagines alternative democratic futures for the region and the English nation signalling the growing awareness of England as a distinct and variegated political formation In 2016 the Brexit vote intensified ongoing constitutional tensions throughout the UK which have been developing since the devolution of Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland in 1997 At the same time British devolution developed a distinctively cultural registration as a surrogate for parliamentary representation and an attempt to disrupt the status of London as Britain's cultural epicentre Rewriting the North shifts this debate in a new direction examining Northern literary preoccupation with devolution's constitutional implications Through close readings of six contemporary authors Sunjeev Sahota Sarah Hall Anthony Cartwright Adam Thorpe Fiona Mozley and Sarah Moss this book argues that literary engagement with the North emphasises regional devolution's limited constitutional charge calling instead for an urgent abandonment of the British centralised state form Climate Change and the Contemporary

Novel Adeline Johns-Putra, 2019-03-21 Analysing how contemporary fiction explores climate change Johns Putra argues that literature can help us understand our obligations to the future The Cambridge Companion to American Utopian

Literature and Culture since 1945 Sherryl Vint, 2024-05-16 Providing a comprehensive overview of American thought in the period following World War II after which the US became a global military and economic leader this book explores the origins of American utopianism and provides a trenchant critique from the point of view of those left out of the hegemonic ideal Centring the voices of those oppressed by or omitted from the consumerist American Dream this book celebrates alternative ways of thinking about how to create a better world through daily practices of generosity justice and care The chapters collected here emphasize utopianism as a practice of social transformation not as a literary genre depicting a putatively perfect society and urgently make the case for why we need utopian thought today With chapters on climate change economic justice technology and more alongside chapters exploring utopian traditions outside Western frameworks this book opens a new discussion in utopian thought and theory Post-Millennial Cultures of Fear in Literature

Mustafa Kirca, Adelheid Rundholz, 2024-04-19 The words fear risk and safety have come to define our contemporary age and have been construed as a dynamic background in the human sciences against which most risk narratives imaginative or otherwise can be read This volume brings together original articles to investigate cultures of fear in post millennial works and covers a wide variety of topics ranging from post millennial political fictions post humanist and postcolonial rewritings to trauma narratives risk narratives literary disaster discourses and apocalyptic scenarios Featuring theoretical and analytical approaches with insights borrowed from multiple disciplines this book will be of interest for scholars and researchers working in the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as the general reader      Contemporary Women's Post-Apocalyptic Fiction Susan Watkins, 2020-02-29 This book examines how contemporary women novelists have successfully transformed and rewritten the conventions of post apocalyptic fiction Since the dawn of the new millennium there has been an outpouring of writing that depicts the end of the world as we know it and women writers are no exception to this trend However the book argues that their fiction is distinctive Contemporary women s work in this genre avoids conservatism a nostalgic mourning for the past and the focus on restoring what has been lost aspects key to much male authored apocalyptic fiction Instead contemporary women writers show readers the ways in which patriarchy and neo colonialism are intrinsically implicated in the disasters they envision and offer qualified hope for a new beginning for society culture and literature after an imagined apocalyptic event Exploring science nature and matter the posthuman body the maternal imaginary time narrative and history literature and the word and the post secular the book covers a wide variety of writers and addresses issues of nationality race and ethnicity as well as gender and sexuality      Experiencing Gender Rocío Carrasco-Carrasco, 2015-10-13 This book provides comprehensive insights into the concept of gender in an international context By focusing on diverse and varied critical approaches it explores how gender identities are shaped by socio cultural factors and provides a map of how gender experiences are understood and represented in the arts and society Through an analysis of both focal and local experiences of gender within a global context the contributions to this volume create a continuum in which gender and experience stand at a crossroads within the arts Moreover this crossroads intersects with the cultural determinations that some of the contributors explore in a critical way Consequently this volume represents a necessary contribution to the new maps of gender that are currently being set for the future The book will appeal to academic scholars interested in the articulation of gender in traditional discourses as well as the many deconstructions that have been undertaking in the recent past and the present In addition the volume is suitable for use in programmes and modules for undergraduate students of feminist and gender studies cultural studies sociology literature and popular culture among other disciplines      The Novel in Transition: Space, Identity, and the Politics of Transformation Selin Şencan, Barış Ağır, Gözde Pınar Bilginer, Mehmet Kerim Balkan, Sinem Çapar İleri, Yöntem Kılış, Selenay Sıla Saldır, Berivan Ayık, 2025-03-19 In contemporary fiction shifting identities contested spaces and sociopolitical ruptures are central concerns reflecting the broader crises of migration ecological displacement posthumanism and gendered spatial politics The Novel in Transition examines these intersections of space identity and power offering critical insights into how novels engage with the changing landscapes of selfhood and spatiality Building on theoretical approaches in geocriticism feminist theory and postcolonial studies this volume explores how fiction constructs and deconstructs subjectivities within fluid geographies It traces the evolving narratives of transformation that define contemporary literature from nomadic resistance in dystopian landscapes to the contested terrains of diaspora and belonging By engaging with these pressing issues this book positions fiction as both a theoretical framework and a mode of empirical analysis illustrating its role in shaping new imaginaries of identity and space in an era of unprecedented global change

Technologies of Feminist Speculative Fiction Sherryl Vint, Sümeyra Buran, 2022-05-04

Technologies of Feminist Speculative Fiction Gender Artificial Life and the Politics of Reproduction explores how much technology has reshaped feminist conversations in the decades since Donna Haraway's influential Cyborg Manifesto was published. With sections exploring reproductive technologies, new ways of imagining femininity and motherhood via artificial means, queer readings of gender as a social technology, and posthuman visions of a world beyond gender, this book demonstrates how feminist speculative fiction offers an urgently needed response to the intersections of women's bodies and technology. This collection brings together authors from Europe, Japan, the US, and the UK to consider speculative films and texts, reproductive technologies, and food futures, and opportunities to rethink family, aging, gender, and sexuality, and community through feminist speculative fiction, a social technology for building better futures.

Essays dealing with the question of how sense of place is constructed in a variety of locations and media. The term 'sense of place' is an important multidisciplinary concept used to understand the complex processes through which individuals and groups define themselves and their relationship to their natural and cultural environments, and which over the last twenty years or so has been increasingly defined, theorized, and used across diverse disciplines in different ways. Sense of place mediates our relationship with the world and with each other; it provides a profoundly important foundation for individual and community identity. It can be an intimate, deeply personal experience, yet also something which we share with others. It is at once recognizable but never constant; rather, it is embodied in the flux between familiarity and difference. Research in this area requires culturally and geographically nuanced analyses, approaches that are sensitive to difference and specificity, event and locale. The essays collected here, drawn from a variety of disciplines including but not limited to sociology, history, geography, outdoor education, museum and heritage studies, health, and English literature, offer an international perspective on the relationship between people and place via five interlinked sections: Histories, Landscapes, and Identities; Rural Sense of Place; Urban Sense of Place; Cultural Landscapes; Conservation, Biodiversity, and Tourism. Ian Convery is Reader in Conservation and Forestry, National School of Forestry, University of Cumbria. Resistant Reproductions Fran Bigman, 2024-03-29 Resistant Reproductions asks why narratives of pregnancy and abortion emerged in the early twentieth century and what kinds of stories these narratives conveyed Is it only once pregnancy becomes plannable that it becomes a story worth telling Abortion is often considered resistant and feminist while pregnancy is considered domestic and conventional How can readings of literary narratives challenge this reductive binary Resistant Reproductions the first book length study of both pregnancy and abortion in British culture addresses these questions by examining pregnancy narratives including abortion narratives in British fiction and film from 1907 to 1967 Fiction became a way for writers to explore what new possibilities of reproductive control would mean for the individual yet there was also much anxiety about who would have control individuals or the state While exploring intimate personal experiences of pregnancy and abortion Resistant Reproductions also asks how literary narratives used reproductive plots to address political issues of gender class and eugenics

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Carhullan Army English Edition : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. The Carhullan Army English Edition : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Carhullan Army English Edition : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
