The Silent Life of Things Alan Munton,Daniela Rogobete,Jonathan P. Sell,2015-11-25 The ever growing interest in the analysis of materiality has found its expression in many studies of objects and objecthood of things and thingness Combining cultural phenomenological semiotic and philosophical approaches this collection of eleven essays proposes a journey into the silent life of things into those aspects of materiality that are not immediately visible and require both increased attention and a sense of intuition It focuses on the subtle changes that materiality operates upon our subjectivity and upon our status as producers users possessors negotiators and manipulators of objects and analyses the ways in which materiality is constantly redefined by consumerism and the strategies it adopts in order to resist commodification In the process the collection explores different ways of deciphering what materiality in its reliable concreteness or its magical materialism tries to tell us all the silent stories that things accumulate while circulating among people societies and cultures the narratives they weave when amassed collected archived or transformed into cultural commodities the secrets they reveal when witnessing the gradual commodification of their owners of their bodies lives and souls The Silent Life of Things Representing and Reading Commodified Objecthood establishes a new paradigm for reading and interpreting commodified materiality and its participation in the establishment of a new aesthetics of consumerism Paradine Island John Talbot Donnell,2006-09

Paradine Island is a story about James Morgan a Kansas bred entrepreneur and the people who follow in his footsteps The death of his mother brings him close to his daughter Lammy She spends her summer holiday sailing in the Caribbean with him on his ketch the C M Paradine They meet Ricardo an Argentine graduate of Iowa State Ricardo and James put Lammy on a plane to resume her pre medical courses at the University of Kansas and together they sail to the Canary Islands James takes pity on a teenage dance hall orphan and spirits her away from her intended sponsors Martina learns English and many of James American ideals as they cross the Atlantic back to his home on Paradine Island He finds her to be intelligent and falls in love with her His business prospers They have two boys On a sailing holiday they are attacked by pirates James is killed Tina escapes with her boys and carries on the business With the assistance of Lammy two clever biochemists a British attorney and Andrew a quarter breed Arapaho cowboy the company becomes an international giant with headquarters in St

Louis Andrew Tina's second husband and two of their little girls are killed in the bombing of the company's properties by Mid-eastern terrorists who are encouraged by liberal political organizations. After reestablishing the company headquarters in England, Tina takes her two boys on a fishing trip into the Scottish highlands. They meet a recluse Scottish earl. The boys initiate a romance between the earl and their mother. Marrying the earl, Tina takes him for a honeymoon sail on the C M Paradine. They and others have a myriad of experiences in the Caribbean chasing a thief who intended to sell to terrorists the company's irreplaceable supply of a lethal material he had stolen.

Alice's Order Nathalie De Los Santos, 2020-03-08 In 2140 Alice is a sixteen-year-old girl and genius. She became a weapon developer after her sister Dawn was killed in an Empyrean terrorist attack. Alice then rises up against the Empyreans who are executed when their psychic abilities are identified. She creates the robot Neutralizers that perform and automate these ethical cleansings. But Alice soon meets a friend who changes her perspective on the attack. A benevolent peaceful activist who was friends with Dawn. Lawrence advocates for the rights of Empyreans. As Lawrence is persecuted for his peaceful activism and Alice witnesses the oppression of her government firsthand, the fabric of everything she fought for is unravelled. Torn between the left and the right somewhere in between. Alice's coming-of-age story is about trying to find her place in a technocratic world where information and truth are distorted at every turn. Who she becomes in order to fight back against the altered truth is not the hero she expected.

Too Late to Say Goodbye Ann Rule, 2008-09-04 Written within a cloistered environment to protect sources that have yet to be identified, TOO LATE TO SAY GOODBYE is a chilling portrait of two beautiful successful women whose murders were made to look like suicides. Jenn Corbin appeared to have it all: two little boys, a posh home in the suburbs of Atlanta, and a husband, Dr. Bart Corbin, a successful dentist who was handsome and brilliant. Then in December 2004, Jenn was found dead with a bullet in her head, apparently by suicide. Only later would detectives learn that another woman in Dr. Corbin's past had been found years earlier with nearly the exact same wound to the head, also ruled a suicide. In TOO LATE TO SAY GOODBYE, Ann Rule, working in cooperation with victims' families, police investigators, and sources from Georgia to Australia, unravels the now sensational deaths. What emerges is an incredible tale of jealous rage, of stunning evidence that runs from the steamy to the macabre, and of a fateful mind-boggling coincidence that appears to have motivated the killings. The definitive unravelling of one of the strangest murder investigations of our time, this is the greatest achievement of a truly great writing career.

Beyond Beauty Federico Vercellone, 2017-01-01 Traces the decline of beauty as an ideal from early German romanticism to the twentieth century. The American abstract expressionist painter Barnett Newman famously declared in 1948 that the impulse of modern art is to destroy beauty. Not long after that, Andy Warhol was reconciling the world of art with the world of everyday life, painting soup cans and soda bottles. In this book, Federico Vercellone provides an account of the decline of beauty as a Platonic ideal from early German Romanticism to the twentieth century. He traces this intellectual trajectory from Goethe, Dilthey, and Nietzsche through modernism and the avant-garde movement to the work of

Adorno and Heidegger Rather than the death or destruction of beauty Vercellone argues instead that beauty in the twentieth century came back to live in reality and everyday life He suggests this is a new edition of the classical ideal rather than an abandonment of it and further makes the case for the ecological significance of this orientation and outlook Alpha's Moon Renee Rose, Lee Savino, 2021-02-13 My alpha ordered me to keep away from humans My wolf is highly unstable Nearly feral I can't be trusted around civilians Certainly not with the lovely kindergarten teacher whose scent drives me wild But she needs a fake boyfriend for a weekend wedding trip A big guy to intimidate her ex How can I refuse I won't be directly disobeying an order because it won't be a real date It will be a nice clean mission We'll have separate rooms I'll keep my wolf on a tight leash And no matter how much I want to I will not mark and claim the sweet human as mine , Islam and the Baha'i Faith Oliver Scharbrodt, 2008-04-25 This book explores the development of Islam and the Baha'i faith in the nineteenth century via the examination of two key reformers The Culture of Cursilería Noël Valis, 2003-01-16 Similar to the term kitsch but evoking pretensions to elegance cursileria and its role in the cultural life of modern Spain and the subjects of this work
