Press Statement

UNEB releases Sample papers for Competency Based Assessment under the New Curriculum

The Uganda National Examinations Board (UNEB) has released the sample papers for the UCE End of Cycle Competency Based Assessment under the New Lower Secondary School Curriculum (NLSC). The purpose is to expose both teachers and learners to the question format of Competency Based Assessment (CBA). Each sample paper has a corresponding scoring guide.

The sample papers can now be accessed via the UNEB portal by all UNEB Examination Centres. UNEB will distribute hard copy booklets to schools without Centre Numbers.

Subjects covered by the Sample papers:

The sample papers cover thirty-six subjects (36) in the categories of Humanities, Sciences, Vocational and Languages as indicated below.

Category	Humanities	Sciences	Vocational
Subjects	History, Geography, Christian Religious Education/ Islamic Religious Education (CRE/IRE).	Physics, Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, and General Science for the blind.	Agriculture, ICT, Technology and Design, Art and Design, Performing Arts, Nutrition and Food Technology, Physical Education, and Entrepreneurship.
Subjects under the Language Category
Foreign Languages	Arabic, German, French, Latin, and Chinese.
Official Languages	English and Kiswahili
Local Languages	Luganda, Lusoga, Lumasaba, Runyoro-Rutoro, Runyankore-Rukiga, Dhopadhola, Ateso, Leb-Lango, Leb-Acoli, Lugbarati and Ugandan Sign Language.

UNEB calls upon teachers to familiarise themselves with the sample papers, guide the learners and come up with similar or related scenarios and questions to expose the learners to a variety of test items.

Uneb Past Papers Uce 2013:

Public Examinations Examined Thomas Kellaghan, Vincent Greaney, 2019-11-19 High stakes public examinations exert a dominant influence in most education systems. They affect both teacher and student behavior especially at the middle and upper levels of secondary education. The content of past examinations tends to dictate what is taught and how it is taught and more important what is learned and how it is learned. By changing aspects of these examinations especially their content and format education systems can have a strong positive impact on teacher behavior and student learning help raise student achievement levels and better prepare students for tertiary level education and for employment. Examination agencies many of which have followed the same procedures over decades can learn from the successes and failures of other systems. This book addresses current issues related to the development administration scoring and usage of these high stakes public examinations identifying key issues and problems related to examinations in many emerging market economies as well as in advanced economies. The book's primary audience consists of public examination officials on national regional and state examination boards but the book should also be of interest to senior education policy makers concerned with certification and learning achievement standards to academics and researchers interested in educational assessment to governmental and education agencies responsible for student selection and to professionals at development organizations. This extremely well written and comprehensive book offers a timely review of the diversity of public examination practices worldwide of the tensions between examinations and learning and of the technical expertise involved in the creation of valid reliable and fair assessments. It reminds us that as the diploma disease takes hold with an ever greater intensity at every stage of education worldwide and the commercial business of testing flourishes those concerned with educational quality and meaningful learning must be on guard to prevent the assessment tail wagging the educational dog. Angela W Little Professor Emerita Institute of Education University College London. This book is very well structured and written and draws on the authors remarkable global knowledge across countries and histories. It will be a great asset both to administrators responsible for examinations and to academics and other professionals who seek to understand the nature and impact of examinations of different types and in different settings. Mark Bray UNESCO Chair Professor of Comparative Education University of Hong Kong and former Director UNESCO International Institute for Educational Planning. I am sure that Public Examinations Examined which thoroughly analyzes the practice of public examinations in different countries and makes profound and well grounded conclusions will arouse very great interest and will serve to further improve public examinations. Victor Bolotov Distinguished Professor Higher School of Economics National Research University Moscow member Russian Academy of Education and former Deputy Minister of Education Russian Federation.

franca perspective into English language teaching in Brazil has only recently take flight As an emerging economy the country faces enormous challenges when it comes to language education in schools where English has traditionally been taught as a foreign language This collection brings the perspectives of academics and language practitioners in their efforts to incorporate an ELF approach into teacher education thus offering a voice sorely missed in the international community interested in developing new approaches to English in a global world Language Issues in Comparative Education II Carol Benson, Kimmo Kosonen, 2021-01-25 This second volume of Language Issues in Comparative Education following the tradition of the first introduces the state of the field re establishes core terminology and concepts and situates the chapters in terms of their contributions to multilingual education based on non dominant languages The first group of chapters examines language in education policy change applying an innovative framework to analyze diverse contexts including Mozambique Estonia and the Philippines The next group of chapters describes activities designed to implement multilingual education Using examples from Chad Ethiopia Kenya and Nepal they explore progress in teacher professional development and elaboration of materials for literacy and learning through non dominant languages Some highlight new areas of the field attending to speakers of non dominant languages other than the ones chosen for instruction and to the urgent multilingual needs of refugee learners The final group of chapters presents strategies for research and advocacy illustrated with examples from DR Congo Uganda and India Taken together these contributions form a cohesive body of work that takes stock of advances in multilingual education and moves the field forward The authors and editors share a common commitment to comparativism in their methods and analysis and aim to contribute to a more inclusive and multilingual education for all See inside the book Advancing the Ugandan Economy Ezra Sabiti Suruma, 2014-04-30 Internal conflicts dictatorship and economic disintegration characterized the first twenty five years of Uganda s independence from British colonial rule which culminated in the reign of Idi Amin and a violent civil war The country has since achieved an astounding turnaround of stability and growth Advancing the Ugandan Economy is a first hand look at the remarkable policy changes that took place from 1986 to 2012 and their effect in contrast with the turbulent events after independence Ezra Suruma held several key positions in the Ugandan government during the nation s transition period including minister of finance His insightful recounting of those times demonstrates that African countries can achieve economic stability and sustain rapid growth when they meet at least two interdependent conditions establishing a stable and secure political framework and unleashing entrepreneurialism Suruma also highlights the strategic areas that still require fundamental reform if Uganda is to become a modern state and shares his vision for the future of his country Rarely in African history has so much positive political and economic transformation of a country been achieved in such a short time Suruma s account of the commitment determination vision and dexterity of the Ugandan government holds invaluable lessons in managing the still complex policy challenges facing the African continent UCE History 1991-2013, 2013
