Unfathomable City A New Orleans Atlas:

Unfathomable City Rebecca Solnit, Rebecca Snedeker, 2013-11-18 Presents twenty two color maps and accompanying essays providing details on the people ecology and culture of the city New Orleans T. R. Johnson, 2023-03-02 The neighborhoods of New Orleans have given rise to an extraordinary outpouring of important writing Over the last century and a half or so these stories and songs have given the city its singular place in the human imagination This book leads the reader along five thoroughfares that define these different parts of town Royal St Claude Esplanade Basin and St Charles to explore how the writers who have lived around them have responded in closely related ways to the environments they share On the outskirts of New Orleans today the city s precarious relation to its watery surroundings and the vexed legacies of race loom especially large But the city s literature shows us that these themes have been near to hand for New Orleans writers for several generations whether reflected through questions of masquerade dreams of escape the innocence of children or the power of money or of violence or of memory New Orleans Under Reconstruction Michael Sorkin, Carol McMichael Reese, Anthony Fontenot, 2014-05-20 When the levee system protecting New Orleans failed and was overtopped in August 2005 following the arrival of Hurricane Katrina 80 percent of the city was flooded with a loss of 103 000 homes in the metropolitan area At least 986 Louisiana residents died The devastation hit vulnerable communities the hardest the elderly the poor and African Americans The disaster exposed shocking inequalities in the city In response numerous urban plans and myriad architectural projects were proposed Nearly nine years later debates about planning and design for recovery renewal and resilience continue This bold challenging and informed book gathers together a panorama of responses from writers architects planners historians and activists including Mike Davis Rebecca Solnit Naomi Klein Denise Scott Brown and M Christine Boyer and searches for answers to one of the most important questions of our age How can we plan for the urban future creating more environmentally sustainable economically robust and socially equitable places to live A 2014 grant from the Graham Foundation for Advanced Studies in the Fine Arts supported in part the publication of this book New Orleans Rhythm and Blues After Katrina Michael Urban, 2016-04-08 Music magic and myth are elements essential to the identities of New Orleans musicians The city s singular contributions to popular music around the world have been unrivaled performing this music authentically requires collective improvisation taking performers on sonorous sojourns in unanticipated magical moments and membership in the city s musical community entails participation in the myth of New Orleans breathing new life into its storied traditions On the basis of 56 open ended interviews with those in the city s musical community Michael Urban discovers that indeed community is what it is all about In their own words informants explain that commercial concerns are eclipsed by the pleasure of playing in one big band that disassembles daily into smaller performing units whose rosters are fluid such that over time everybody plays with everybody Although Hurricane Katrina nearly terminated the city New Orleans and its music in no small part due to the sacrifices and labors of its musicians have come back even stronger

Dancing to their own drum New Orleanians again prove themselves to be admirably out of step with the rest of America

Ephemeral Coast: Visualizing Coastal Climate Change Celina Jeffery, 2022-08-02 Ephemeral Coast Visualizing Coastal Climate Change considers the ways that art can offer a means through which to discover analyze re imagine and re frame emotive discourses about the ecological and cultural transformations of the coastline This edited anthology takes ephemerality as its central conceptual and methodological framework and presents a series of essays that create interconnections between environmental and social considerations of the coast a succession of embodied creative practices and shifting regional geographic identities The book presents a series of specific case studies of artistic practices and strategies that seek to capture the rewriting of cartographic maps that are being reshaped by rising seas coastal flooding and catastrophic weather The essays in this edited volume engender creative strategies for understanding new and uncertain coastal ecologies and the loss expulsion or destruction of their associated cultures habitats species and ecosystems The anthology also looks at the historical mnemonic and contemporary transitional conditions of conflicted coastal spaces in which empire modernity and globalization press on coastal erosion and incursions proliferate it with trivial plastics pollution and disposable attitudes and bring vulnerable communities into uncertain futures Underworld Work Ahmad

Greene-Hayes, 2025-05-06 A rethinking of African American religious history that focuses on the development and evolution of Africana spiritual traditions in Jim Crow New Orleans When Zora Neale Hurston traveled to New Orleans she encountered a religious underworld a beautiful anarchy of spiritual life In Underworld Work Ahmad Greene Hayes follows Hurston on a journey through the rich tapestry of Black religious expression from emancipation through Jim Crow He looks within and beyond the church to recover the diverse leadership of migrants healers dissidents and queer people who transformed their marginalized homes bars and street corners into sacred space Greene Hayes shows how while enclosed within an anti black world these outcasts embraced Africana esotericisms ancestral veneration faith healing spiritualized sex work and more to conjure a connection to freer worlds past and yet to come In recovering these spiritual innovations Underworld Work celebrates the resilience and creativity of Africana religions Fictionality and Multimodal Narratives Torsa Ghosal, Alison Gibbons, 2023-08 Fictionality and Multimodal Narratives interrogates the multimodal relationship between fictionality and factuality The contemporary discussion about fictionality coincides with an increase in anxiety regarding the categories of fact and fiction in popular culture and global media Today's media saturated historical moment and political climate give a sense of urgency to the concept of fictionality distinct from fiction specifically in relation to modes and media of discourse Torsa Ghosal and Alison Gibbons explicitly interrogate the relationship of fictionality with multimodal strategies of narrative construction in the present media ecology Contributors consider the ways narrative structures their reception and their theoretical frameworks in narratology are influenced and changed by media composition particularly new media By accounting for the relationship of multimodal composition with the ontological complexity of narrative worlds Fictionality and

Multimodal Narratives fills a critical gap in contemporary narratology the discipline that has to date contributed most to the conceptualization of fictionality Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities Monica Manolescu, 2018-10-03 Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities Art Literature and Urban Spaces explores phenomena of urban mapping in the discourses and strategies of a variety of postwar artists and practitioners of space Allan Kaprow Claes Oldenburg Vito Acconci Gordon Matta Clark Robert Smithson Rebecca Solnit Matthew Buckingham contemporary Situationist projects The distinctive approach of the book highlights the interplay between texts and site oriented practices which have often been treated separately in critical discussions Monica Manolescu considers spatial investigations that engage with the historical and social conditions of the urban environment and reflect on its mediated nature Cartographic procedures that involve walking and surveying are interpreted as unsettling and subversive possibilities of representing and navigating the postwar American city The book posits mapping as a critical nexus that opens up new ways of studying some of the most important postwar artistic engagements with New York and other American cities

After Katrina Anna Hartnell, 2017-01-25 Argues that post Katrina New Orleans is a key site for exploring competing narratives of American decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Through the lens provided by the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina After Katrina argues that the city of New Orleans emerges as a key site for exploring competing narratives of US decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Deploying an interdisciplinary approach to explore cultural representations of the post storm city Anna Hartnell suggests that New Orleans has been reimagined as a laboratory for a racialized neoliberalism and as such might be seen as a terminus of the American dream This US disaster zone has unveiled a network of social and environmental crises that demonstrate that prospects of social mobility have dwindled as environmental degradation and coastal erosion emerge as major threats not just to the quality of life but to the possibility of life in coastal communities across America and the world And yet After Katrina also suggests that New Orleans culture offers a way of thinking about the United States in terms that transcend the binary of national renewal or declension The post Hurricane city thus emerges as a flashpoint for reflecting on the contemporary United States

Venice and the Anthropocene AA. VV., 2023-05-15 T00:00:00+02:00 What does Venice look like when observed from the perspective of climate change environmental collapse and human animal relations in an age of industrialization and mass extinction That is as a privileged observatory of the Anthropocene This guide composed of several voices forms a new illuminating and disturbing mosaic of Venice and its Lagoon What does the Venetian School of Painting tell us about our relationship with the environment and animals What do peripheral places in the Lagoon like Porto Marghera and Pellestrina reveal about the advent and impact of modernity What stories of extinction lie behind local delicacies like baccal mantecato What does the centuries old relationship of Venetians with water tell us about other cities threatened by an increasingly hostile climate The guidebook accompanied by a map is intended as a tool for learning about the city in a new way Venice emerges here as a unique ecosystem at risk but also as a key to understanding our increasingly vulnerable world Preface by Serenella Iovino In Case of Katrina Ellen Jeffery Blue, 2016-08-04 Since six months after landfall Ellen Blue has taught The Church's Response to Katrina It sidesteps disaster response where clearly the church should be involved What was unclear was how leaders in a connectional denomination like United Methodism should decide which churches to merge or decommission after floods destroyed seventy churches and displaced ninety pastors and no one knew how many members would return Katrina gave the church a chance to re make itself without deteriorating structures in no longer thriving neighborhoods Yet as members returned to chaos they sought solace Should the church meet needs for Sanctuary and reassurance or use newfound flexibility to seek justice In Case of Katrina examines leadership strategies and the theological convictions that underlay them during the struggle to decide The larger United Methodist Church controls real estate and the hierarchy had the power to choose Instead they let verdicts spring primarily from congregants and pastors on the ground through a long controversial process Recovery has been entwined with issues of race and class Cooperation among African American and Anglo congregations has birthed vibrant multi racial worship and ministries Yet other prophetic ministry was left undone and it should set the agenda for the next decade

Dancing the Politics of Pleasure at the New Orleans Second Line Rachel Carrico, 2024-10-22 On many Sundays Black New Orleanians dance through city streets in Second Lines These processions invite would be spectators to join in grooving to an ambulatory brass band for several hours Though an increasingly popular attraction for tourists parading provides the second liners themselves with a potent public expression of Black resistance Rachel Carrico examines the parading bodies in motion as a form of negotiating and understanding power Seeing pleasure as a bodily experience Carrico reveals how second liners moves link joy and liberation self and communal identities play and dissent and reclamations of place As she shows dancers choices allow them to access the pleasure of reclaiming self and city through motion and rhythm while expanding a sense of the possible in the present and for the future In depth and empathetic Dancing the Politics of Pleasure at the New Orleans Second Line blends analysis with a chorus of Black voices to reveal an indelible facet of Black culture in the Crescent City

Rebuilding New Orleans Sarah Fouts, 2025-05-09 In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina Central American and Mexican immigrants arrived in New Orleans to help clean up and rebuild When federal relief services overlooked the needs of immigrant led construction and cleanup crews as part of post Katrina mass feeding strategies street food stands and taco trucks stepped in to ensure food security for these workers Many of these food vendors settled in the city over the next decade opening restaurants and other businesses Yet in a city experiencing whitewashed redevelopment new immigrants were frequently pitted against Black poor and working class New Orleanians for access to housing and other resources During Fouts's five years as a volunteer with the New Orleans Workers Center for Racial Justice she came to know and interview the day laborers food workers culture producers and community organizers whose stories shape this book Her work reveals how after the storm immigrant communities have culturally and politically reshaped New Orleans and its suburbs Fouts also highlights how immigrants forged multiracial solidarities to foster inclusive change at the local level By connecting migration labor and food Rebuilding New Orleans centers human experiences to illustrate how immigrant and established communities of color resisted criminalization and racial capitalism to create a more just New Orleans

Cities as Multiple Landscapes Christina Antenhofer, Günter Bischof, Robert L. Dupont, Ulrich Leitner, 2016-10-13 Cities are composed of a combination of urban and rural spaces buildings and boundaries and human bodies engaged in political social and cultural discourses Together these combine to create what the contributors to this volume call multiple landscapes Developing a new theoretical conceptualization of cities this book unites American and European approaches to comparative urban studies by investigating the concept of multiple landscapes in two sister cities New Orleans and Innsbruck As the essays reveal both New Orleans and Innsbruck have long been centers of multicultural exchange have strong senses of historical heritage and profit from the spectacular geographies in which they are situated Geography in particular links both cities to environmental technological and security challenges that must be considered in connection with aesthetic cultural and ecological debates Exploring the many connections between New Orleans and Innsbruck the interdisciplinary essays in this book will change the way we think about cities both local and abroad

Visual Methodology in Migration Studies Karolina Nikielska-Sekula, Amandine Desille, 2021-07-29 This open access book explores the use of visual methods in migration studies through a combination of theoretical analyses and empirical studies The first section looks at how various visual methods including photography film and mental maps may be used to analyse the spatial presence of migrants The second section addresses the processual building of narratives around migration thereby using formats such as film and visual essay and reflecting upon the ways they become carriers and mediators of both story and theory within the subject of migration Section three focuses on vulnerable communities and discusses how visual methods can empower these communities thereby also focusing on the theoretical and ethical implications of migration The fourth section addresses the issue of migrant representation in visual discourses Based on these contributions a concluding methodological chapter systematizes the use of visual methods in migration studies across disciplines with regard to their empirical theoretical and ethical implications Multidisciplinary in character this book is an interesting read for students and migration scholars who engage with visual methodologies as well as practitioners journalists filmmakers photographers curators of exhibitions who address the topic of migration visually

Incarcerating the Crisis Jordan T. Camp, 2016-04-18 The United States currently has the largest prison population on the planet Over the last four decades structural unemployment concentrated urban poverty and mass homelessness have also become permanent features of the political economy These developments are without historical precedent but not without historical explanation In this searing critique Jordan T Camp traces the rise of the neoliberal carceral state through a series of turning points in U S history including the Watts insurrection in 1965 the Detroit rebellion in 1967 the Attica uprising in 1971 the Los Angeles revolt in 1992 and events in post Katrina New Orleans in 2005 Incarcerating the Crisis argues that these dramatic events coincided with the emergence of neoliberal capitalism and the state's attempts to crush radical social movements Through an examination of the poetic visions of social movements including those by James Baldwin Marvin Gaye June Jordan Jos Ram rez and Sunni Patterson it also suggests that alternative outcomes have been and continue to be possible
