Handcrafted Careers Eli Revelle Yano Wilson, 2024-09-17 Unpacks the problems and privileges of pursuing a career of passion by exploring work inside craft breweries As workers attempt new modes of employment in the era of the Great Resignation they face a labor landscape that is increasingly uncertain and stubbornly unequal With Handcrafted Careers sociologist Eli Revelle Yano Wilson dives headfirst into the everyday lives of workers in the craft beer industry to address key questions facing American workers today about what makes a good career who gets to have one and how careers progress without established models Wilson argues that what ends up contributing to divergent career paths in craft beer is a complex interplay of social connections personal tastes and cultural ideas as well as exclusionary industry structures The culture of work in craft beer is based around bearded white guy ideals that are gendered and racialized in ways that limit the advancement of women and people of color A fresh perspective on niche industries Handcrafted Careers offers sharp insights into how people navigate worlds of work that promote ideas of authenticity and passion filled careers even amid instability Networking Women Lena Koya, Heather Moore

Niver, 2017-12-15 Networking is the process of building up your social and professional connections in order to advance your career and or to strengthen your community For young women in particular networking is a useful skill to know in order to chart a path through adulthood whether through choosing a college finding a first job or internship or even meeting new friends This text guides readers through the process of networking with a focus on how to cultivate useful social skills It includes a glossary a For More Information section and suggestions for additional research to guide students in their reading
