Tolstoy, 2002 Path of Life was the last book written by Lev Tolstoy. Although the great nineteenth century Russian novelist is known in English speaking countries for his major novels War and Peace, Anna Karenina and Resurrection, He is less known for his numerous religious writings which present a challenging and original point of view. These works have been undervalued as evidenced by the fact that Path of Life is translated here fully in English. The reader will notice that Tolstoy anticipated many of the ideas presented in contemporary books on spirituality such as the observation that our thoughts determine our lives. Tolstoy began to write this book in 1910 the last year of his life when he was 82 years old. Given that he began the book in January and completed it in October of the same year one would think the writing went quickly but it only seems that way. Tolstoy actually had been developing the themes presented in Path of Life for the last thirty years of his life.
