Circle of Fire William F. Axton, 2021-10-21 This study explores the theater actually known and frequented by Dickens in order to show in terms of concrete structural analysis of his novels the nature of the predominantly dramatic or theatrical quality of his genius Author William F Axton finds that the three principal dramatic modes or voices that were characteristically Victorian were burlesquerie grotesquerie and the melodramatic and that the novelist's vision of the world around him was drawn from ways of seeing transformed from those elements in the popular playhouse of his day as revealed in the structure and theme of Sketches by Boz Pickwick Papers Oliver Twist and other novels The last half of the study analyzes representative passages from the novels to illustrate the way in which the principal modes of nineteenth century theatrical style are transmuted into the three important voices of the novelist's prose style The first two voices the burlesque and the grotesque are identified by their exploitation of the stylistic features of farce extravaganza and harlequinade of incongruous likeness and deliberate confusion between realms The melodramatic voice on the other hand seeks to exploit in prose the musically rhythmic and poetic resources of the theater for the purpose of atmosphere moral commentary and structural unity

Bricker,2010-06-28 Victoria Bricker shows that history sometimes rests on mythological foundations and that myth can contain valid historical information Her book which is a highly original critique of postconquest historiography about the Maya challenges major assumptions about the relationship between myth and history implicit in structuralist interpretations The focus of the book is ethnic conflict a theme that pervades Maya folklore and is also well documented historically The book begins with the Spanish conquest of the Maya In chapters on the postconquest history of the Maya five ethnic conflicts are treated in depth the Cancuc revolt of 1712 the Quisteil uprising of 1761 the Totonicapan rebellion of 1820 the Caste War of Yucatan 1847 1901 and the Chamulan uprising in 1869 Analytical chapters consider the relationship between historical events and modern folklore about ethnic conflict Bricker demonstrates that myths and rituals emphasize structure at the expense of temporal and geographical provenience treating events separated by centuries or thousands of miles as equivalent and interchangeable An unexpected result of Bricker s research is the finding that many seemingly aboriginal elements in Maya folklore are actually of postconquest origin and she shows that it is possible to determine precisely when and more important why they become part of myth and ritual Furthermore she finds that the patterning of the accretion of events in folklore over time provides clues to the function or meaning of myth and ritual for the Maya Bricker has made use of many unpublished documents in Spanish English and Maya as well as standard synthetic historical works The appendices contain extensive samples of the oral traditions that are explained by her analysis
