Montgomery Ward,1959 Calligraphy Typewriters Larry Eigner,2017-03-21 The first and only single volume collection of Larry Eigner s most significant poems gathering in one place the most celebrated of the several thousand poems that constitute his remarkable life s work Larry Eigner began writing poetry at age eight and was first published at age nine

Revered by poets and artists across a broad spectrum of generations and schools Eigner's remarkably moving poetry was created through enormous effort because of severe physical disabilities he produced his texts by typing with only one index finger and thumb on a 1940 Royal manual typewriter creating a body of work that is unparalleled in its originality

Calligraphy Typewriters showcases the most celebrated of Eigner's several thousand poems which are an important part of the Black Mountain Projectivist movement that began in the 1950s and which remain a primary inspiration for many younger writers including those in the Language movement that began in the 1970s In its two sections Swampscott and Berkeley named for the two locales where Eigner lived and worked the volume traces his fantastic perception of the ordinary and his zeal for language Eigner's use of visual space metaphor and description provide fascinating insights into both his own life and the world that surrounded him This volume maintains the distinctive visual spacing of his original typescripts reminders of his method aesthetic sensibility and creative ability to compose on the typewriter A collection that reimagines the ordinary Calligraphy Typewriters is the definitive selection of Eigner's poems and will serve well not only poets and students of poetry but readers and writers of every vein
