

CO's Welcome Aboard

Welcome to the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) Unit at the University of Idaho and Washington State University. We are extremely pleased you are joining us this Fall to begin your journey towards becoming a Navy or Marine Corps Officer. As an NROTC student, you are entering one of the most challenging and rewarding collegiate programs available. Your participation in the program exhibits your motivation, initiative, and patriotism – thank you in advance for your desire to serve our great nation.

This year we have prepared an orientation program that will provide you a solid foundation in the basics of military customs, courtesies, traditions, and how to succeed academically at the college-level. These couple days are not a “boot camp” and will not resemble any of Hollywood’s nightmare portrayals of joining the military. Our objective is to welcome you aboard, get you oriented to the Program and campuses, and start your transformation from high school student to military officer – you have four years to get there! Historically, one of the most demanding parts of the week’s activities for our new personnel is the physical training. I cannot stress enough for you to start your physical fitness preparation now! Information is provided in the enclosed materials to help you improve your fitness and get ready over the summer.

If you visit the campus this summer please stop by the Unit and say “Hello”. The Unit is located on the second deck of Hays Hall, near the intersection of Nez Perce Drive and Blake Avenue. You are joining an outstanding group of young leaders – scholars, athletes, and most importantly, your future shipmates! We look forward to meeting you and welcoming you aboard.

Sincerely,

M. J. MCCLINTOCK
Captain, U.S. Navy
