Konrath, Raelynn Hillhouse and John Cox discuss the ten sexiest Bond girls, the best villains and the controversy surrounding the latest actor to play James Bond. Topics covered range from the playful how to build a secret lair and avoid the perennial mistakes made by would-be world dominators to the thought provoking such as Bond's place in the modern world, his Oedipal tendencies and perceived misogyny and the unerring allure of the charming spy.

A Manifesto for the Just City Roberto Rocco, Caroline Newton, 2022-06-01 The Manifesto for the Just City comes in the wake of the realisation that socio-spatial justice is a crucial dimension for sustainability transitions. Growing inequality and the erosion of the public sphere undermine the social and political structures required to fight climate change, pandemics and other systemic shocks. At the same time, profound cynicism and scepticism have gripped our minds. This is paralysing us. Following the words of Professor Faranak Miraftab, we need to decolonise our minds and try to imagine a different world and new kinds of relationships among ourselves and between us and the planet. This book aims to encourage students to formulate their own visions for the Just City and for a just transition. The second volume of A Manifesto for the Just City published by TU Delft OPEN Publishing and funded by the Delft Design for Values Institute gathers texts from scholars discussing aspects of the just city. Professors Faranak Miraftab, Mona Fawaz, Mariana Fix Romola, Sanyal Roberto Rocco and Caroline Newton and showcases 63 manifestos written by 256 students from 48 universities all over the world.

The Written Dead

Kyle William Bishop, Angela Tenga, 2017-06-29 From Victor Halperin's White Zombie 1932 to George A. Romero's landmark Night of the Living Dead 1968 and AMC's hugely successful The Walking Dead 2010 zombie mythology has become an integral part of popular culture. In a reversal of the typical pattern of adaptation the zombie developed onscreen before appearing in short stories and comic books during the 20th century and more recently as subjects of more traditional novels. This collection of new essays examines some of the most influential and inventive zombie literature from the early stories to the most recent narratives including some told from a zombie perspective. European Car, 2005
