The Struggle For Black Equality 1954 199:

Men Like That John Howard,1999-12 Howard s unparalleled history of queer life in the South shows how homosexuality flourished in the conservative institutions of small town life interspersing the life stories of both the ordinary and the famous 22 halftones 4 maps Black Diplomacy Michael L. Krenn,1999-01-13 A fascinating look at a previously ignored piece of our nation s history Black Diplomacy covers integration of the State Department after 1945 and the subsequent appointments of Black ambassadors to Third World and African nations In seven illuminating chapters Krenn covers the efforts to integrate the State Department the setbacks during the Eisenhower years and the gains achieved during the administrations of JFK and LBJ Not content with simply using traditional sources federal and other governmental agency records he gained fresh insights from the papers of the NAACP African American newspapers and journals of the period He also conducted original interviews with Edward Dudley America s first black ambassador Richard Fox Horace Dawson Ronald Palmer and Terrence Todman never before interviewed ambassador to six nations beginning in 1952 and an assistant secretary of state This unique look at the period will be of interest to anyone attempting to understand both the history of the civil rights movement in the U S and America s Cold War relations with underdeveloped nations during the quarter century after World War II

Crime and Punishment in America David B. Wolcott,Tom Head,2010 From the first incident of petty theft to modern media piracy crime and punishment have been a part of every society However the structure and values of a particular society shape both the incidences of crime and the punishment of criminals When the United States became an independent nation politicians and civilians began the process of deciding which systems of punishment were appropriate for dealing with crime a process that continues to this day Crime and Punishment in America examines the development of crime and punishment in the United States from the criminal justice practices of American Indians and the influence of colonists to the mistreatment of slaves as well as such current criminal issues as the response to international terrorism Black

Diplomacy Michael Krenn,2015-05-20 This text covers integration of the State Department after 1945 and the subsequent appointments of Black ambassadors to Third World and African nations Other topics include the setbacks during the Eisenhower years and the gains achieved during the Kennedy and Johnson administrations The Asian American Movement William Wei,1993-10-06 Active for more than two decades the Asian American movement began a middle class reform effort to achieve racial equality social justice and political empowerment In this first history and in depth analysis of the Movement William Wei traces to the late 1960s the genesis of an Asian American identity culture and activism Wei analyzes the Asian American women s movement the alternative press Asian American involvement in electoral politics Interviews with many key participants in the Movement and photographs of Asian American demonstrations and events enliven this portrayal of the Movement s development breadth and conflicts Richard Wright Keneth

Kinnamon,2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son. By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris. But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes. He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers. This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays, books, and articles from 1983 through 2003. Arranged alphabetically by author, within years are some 8,320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book-length studies of African American literature and literary criticism. Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982. This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics.

Interpretations of American History: From Reconstruction Francis G. Couvares, 2000. The passionate arguments and offer a clear, distanced vision of the changing character of history. They explain how history has usually been viewed through the lens of the present and demonstrate with sparkling historiography that the discipline is as contemporary as the headlines of today as vital as the problems of tomorrow.

Swing Low, volume 1 Walter R. Strickland, 2024-10-29. The dynamic witness of the Black church is an essential part of Christian history. In this groundbreaking two-volume work, Walter R. Strickland II presents a theological intellectual history of African American Christianity. Volume 1, a narrative history, explores five theological anchors of Black Christianity from the 1600s to the present.

Mothering While Black Dawn Marie Dow, 2019-03-05. Mothering While Black examines the complex lives of the African American middle class, in particular black mothers and the strategies they use to raise their children to maintain class status while simultaneously defining and protecting their children's authentically black identities. Sociologist Dawn Marie Dow shows how the frameworks typically used to research middle-class families focus on white mothers' experiences, inadequately capturing the experiences of African American middle and upper middle-class mothers. These limitations become apparent when Dow considers how these mothers apply different parenting strategies for black boys and for black girls and how they navigate different expectations about breadwinning and childrearing from the African American community. At the intersection of race, ethnicity, gender, work, family, and culture, Mothering While Black sheds light on the exclusion of African American middle-class mothers from the dominant cultural experience of middle-class motherhood. In doing so, it reveals the painful truth of the decisions that black mothers must make to ensure the safety, well-being, and future prospects of their children.

Getting Right With God Mark Newman, 2001-09-11. Publisher Fact Sheet. This groundbreaking study analyzes the evolution of Southern Baptists' attitudes toward African Americans during a tumultuous period of change in the United States.

Family Values Isabel Heinemann, 2023-10-04. Clashes over the American family and its values have always implicitly or explicitly addressed issues of gender and highlighted the significance of present and future families to American society. This is the insight underpinning Isabel Heinemann's groundbreaking study, which traces over the course of the twentieth century debates on the family and its role, the relationship between the individual and society, and individual decision-making rights.

as well as their denial or curtailment Unpacking these issues in a vivid and innovative analysis the book recounts the prehistory of current conflicts over the family and gender while illuminating the relationship between social change normative shifts and the counter movements spawned in response to them Black San Francisco Albert S. Broussard,1993 This work explores race relations in the city of San Francisco where whites for the most part were outwardly civil to blacks while denying them employment opportunities and political power The author argues that it is essential to understand the nature of the racial caste system The Legislative Legacy of Edward M. Kennedy Craig A. Horowitz,2014-02-14 Sweeping biographies abound authorized and nonauthorized regarding Ted Kennedy They tend either to applaud him for his ideals or criticize him for his personal flaws The present work differs Using historical tools and legal analysis it closely examines ten major pieces of legislation Kennedy sponsored or strongly backed as well as the attempt at immigration reform he spearheaded with John McCain This is a balanced and thoroughly researched book By tracing the legislation from their introduction through passage and analyzing the actual language of the legislation the book sheds considerable light both on the unintended consequences through time of the legislation as well as consequences Kennedy intended in attempting to promote reform and combat discrimination Le donne afroamericane negli Stati Uniti Silvia Benussi,2007 Toni Morrison Lucille P. Fultz,2012-12-27 Cutting edge scholarly guide to Toni Morrison s most recent work with emphasis on Morrison s examination of African American progress and leadership at key moments in American history Making Whole what Has Been Smashed John Torpey,2006 This book explores the recent spread of political efforts to rectify past injustices Although it recognizes that reparations campaigns may lead to improved well being of victims and to reconciliation among former antagonists it examines the extent to which concern with the past may depart from the future orientation of progressive politics Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee,Andrew Offenburger,2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa s past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal s origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's complex history over the past several centuries Denver University Law Review, 1995 Senator Sam Ervin, Last of the Founding Fathers (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Large Bold Edition) , Native American Religion and Black Protestantism Martin E. Marty, 1993
