Report of Major-General B. McClellan George Brinton McClellan, 1864 The Men Inside George Phillipos, 2005. A brilliant collection of short stories woven out of the author's association with the seas as a marine engineer. Exquisitely narrated, the author is able to transport the reader into the deep seas with his characters. Through the tapestry of his narration, Phillipos is able to delineate the stories of ordinary human beings and their ordinary human emotions. On one hand, while on the other, he dabbles with the realm of the unreal, paranormal. Anecdotal and churned out of his personal memory, this collection is simply unputdownable.

The Diary of John Holt John Holt, International Maritime Economic History Association, 1993. John Holt 1841-1915 was a successful British merchant who made several voyages to West Africa during his lifetime to establish business and trade in the era of British Imperialism. His diaries are presented in two accounts: the first from 1862-1872 documents his life as a merchant on the West African island of Fernando Po, initially working for James Lynslager and eventually purchasing the trade company and expanding it significantly. Holt's own vessel, Maria, and his affiliation with the African Steam Ship Company made his maritime trade activities particularly successful. The second account records his voyage in the Maria from Liverpool to Fernando Po in 1869-1872 and documents his trade relationships across West Africa. The volume is rounded out by diary entries from the ten-day voyage of the Peep o' Day along the Krou coast and concludes with John Holt's family tree. This volume presents a comprehensive account of Holt's life as a means of preserving history and adding to the field of study of mercantile livelihoods and shipping trade industries under British imperialism. It also seeks to celebrate the individual accomplishments made in John Holt's career.
