The Song Of Set:

The song of Set Judith Page, 2000 The Songs of Jean Sibelius Gustav Djupsjöbacka, 2023 A landmark in Sibelius scholarship this is the first book that presents all of Sibelius's solo art songs in their musical and aesthetic context Indispensable for scholars and performers alike This is the first book to discuss the complete solo art songs of Jean Sibelius and to locate them in their musical literary and artistic context The book is organized around the poets Sibelius set to music and the literary themes associated with them thus providing invaluable information for the scholar student and performer The musical and aesthetic contextualisation of the songs will help to enable new interpretations on the performance stage

Yaqui Deer Songs, Maso Bwikam Larry Evers, 1987 Demonstrates the method of the deer song Songs from the Stations Myfany Turpin, Felicity Meakins, 2019 The Gurindji people of the Northern Territory are perhaps best known for their walk off of Wave Hill Station in 1966 protesting against mistreatment by the station managers The strike would become the first major victory of the Indigenous land rights movement Many discussions of station life are focused on the harsh treatment of Aboriginal workers Songs from the Stations portrays another side of life on Wave Hill Station Amongst the harsh conditions and decades of mistreatment an eclectic ceremonial life flourished during the first half of the 20th century Constant travel between cattle stations by Indigenous workers across north western and central Australia meant that Wave Hill Station became a cross road of desert and Top End musical styles As a result the Gurindji people learnt songs from the Mudburra who came further east the Bilinarra from the north the Nyininy from the west and the Warlpiri from the south This book is the first detailed documentation of wajarra public songs performed by the Gurindji people in response to contemporary events in their community Featuring five song sets known as Laka Mintiwarra Kamul Juntara and Freedom Day it is an exploration of the cultural exchange between Indigenous communities that was fostered by their involvement in the pastoral industry Publisher's website The Songs of Robert Burns Donald Low, 2005-08-16 In this definitive work for our generation Donald Low brings together for the first time the words and tunes of all Burns known songs both polite and bawdy The Songs of Robert Burns were in their author's eyes the crown of his achievement as a poet After years of study and investigation many hours spent listening to old airs as he recalled the living daily song life of the people of Scotland and through the creation of some of the finest lyric poetry produced in the British Isles Burns success is beyond doubt Facing the Music Robert Dusek, 2008-06 Facing the Music is a book about worship leading But it is also a book about much more than just the act of leading or the theory of leadership It dives deep into the calling spirit and motivation of the worship leader It invites us to move beyond singing the song and towards becoming the song It speaks of worship not as something we do but rather something we are It celebrates a lifestyle of worship and leads us to a level of transparency and intimacy before Jesus Christ Facing the Music may challenge your preconceptions about worship leading it may make you uncomfortable about some things But in the end the call as A W Tozer once said to Take worship out of the hands of man and place it in the hands of God where it belongs rings loud and clear throughout its passages Dr Robert Dusek is the Worship and Arts Pastor at Centerpoint Community Church in Arvada Colorado Prior to being called to the ministry Dr Dusek toured as a concert pianist and had several of his compositions and performances published and recorded His passion now is for a rebirth of authenticity and transparency in the worship of God and to that end he has worked with and coached several Denver area praise teams and has been a proponent of multi church praise and worship gatherings Robert lives at home with his wife whom he loves and his dog whom he tolerates

Schubert's Song Sets Michael Hall, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 From 1821 until his death Schubert compiled or specially composed for publication 42 song sets yet during his own lifetime and until now their integrity and importance as sets have been virtually ignored In this book Michael Hall asserts that these songs sets are not arbitrary collections as so often assumed but highly integrated works in their own right Approaching these songs as sets the book throws light on Schubert's largely undiscussed intellectual preoccupations They reveal that he was au fait with most of the philosophical concerns of his time especially those which touched on Romanticism But although the sets reflect Romanticism in their topics Hall maintains that they are the epitome of classical balance In encouraging students and performers to approach these songs as sets this study aims to alter perceptions of this important repertory
